

Sponsorship & Exhibition Prospectus

<https://esc2022.sciencesconf.org/>

About the conference

The European Symposium on Comminution & Classification ESCC has a very long tradition. After Braunschweig, Gothenburg, Izmir, Leeds, for the last events, we are proud to welcome the worldwide community in Toulouse, a dynamic, youthful and attractive European city that can boast of 2000 years of history !

This new event will combine the fundamentals of breakage, advanced models and comminution and classification processes on mineral processing, biorefinery, food, pharmaceutical, chemical and materials industries as well as recycling industries and waste processing. We will have plenary and keynote lectures from leading comminution and classification experts from all over the world, poster sessions and exhibitions by instrument manufacturers.

Date and location

from Monday, June 27th to Wednesday 29th, 2022 at the ENSIACET Engineering School, Toulouse, France.

Expected number of participants

Around 120.

Why sponsor?

During this conference, the various academic, industrial and professional actors of the domain will be able to meet. Your presence will be the opportunity to promote, at an international level, the products, expertise and dynamism of your company in this sector. As partner of this event, you can contribute and communicate by different ways:

- the exposure of your products/services
- the diffusion of your advertising in the program of the conference,
- or a sponsoring of your choice (see below).
